

KENNET VALLEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Mag No 0108 – Sunday 24 March 2002 – The Crown and Garter, Inkpen

It's not often that we go hashing in one of the densest population of millionaires in the country, but there you are, Inkpen is right at the top of that list. This run and the following will no doubt have introduced us all to a style of country living that we work hard for each week when buying our lottery tickets – now that reminds me, I have one from 4 weeks ago I've not checked yet ..... this brings a new definition to the term checking when out on the run.

This hash was noted for the diligent way that the walkers found the Crown and Garter pub at the start, way before any of the runners who seem to have spent at least quarter of an hour driving madly around the country side in convoy looking desperately for a pub with a retired half naked flour and mud splattered maniac standing outside. We were not to be disappointed by our hare this week.

Well done walkers – it just goes to show how much better you are at getting somewhere when not talking to each other or admiring the scenery.

As for the runners, we had a few desertions this week, some preferring to walk in the rain in Turkey than in sunny Inkpen, others just plain absent. Hopefully there will be providing notes from their mothers explaining this errant behaviour.

The run and walk though were both excellent, the sort of potential stuff power walkers dream of ..... good checks (although one hidden by a un-authorized car), false trails not too long (but we do like T's), no big hills (which we all like) and a nice pub at the end of a short run and walk.

The Grand Old Mistress being absent, Jeremy provided the honours thanking Mike for his superb run and apologising for not having the horn.
