

KENNET VALLEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS – KVVH³
Hash 0273 – Sunday, 11 May 2008 – The White Horse at Woolstone

A week before the hash and it seemed we were about to have another attack of the unhappy landlord syndrome. Our hares had been diligently checking the trail for some weeks, and having ascertained that it was fine, broached the plan for KVVH³ to pay a lunchtime visit. Yes, we could come and hash, so long as we didn't use the car park. The landlord was concerned as another hash group had recently visited, filled up the car park and discouraged others to come and eat proper expensive food, rather than the typical hash fare of beer and chips. Urgent communications were set up; signals flew between high command and the field and the decision was taken to rendezvous at the Uffington White Horse car park, from whence we would be camper-vanned to the start.

Luckily, by the time the day arrived, the landlord had relented and agreed to a few cars using the car park, and so – seeing there were in fact only a few cars meeting at the Uffington White Horse - we were able to proceed in convoy and park up.

The trail itself was flat and sunny, with Navy Mike leading off into the distance, Kevin coughing and spluttering along in his wake together with the rest of the crew acting as flotsam. The course was excellent, well laid and floured and we all thoroughly enjoyed it. As probably one of the hottest days so far, the heat took its toll, so unusually, GOM was the last runner to finish.

We had a good chin wag afterwards, Mike telling us how he'd been on the wagon for 10 days in training for the Ridgeway Relay, and then promptly falling off as soon as the first round appeared. Someone presented the chicken to Keith, who is now under dire threat to ensure it re-appears for the Relay, and GOM thanked Jackie and Ray for an excellent trail, before we departed, some to exotic locations overseas – lucky them!
